

Bhutan: Walks, Yaks and the Black-necked Crane Festival

Sunday 6th - Friday 18th November 2016

Flight Information

Paro airport is the meeting place for this tour. Drukair, the national airline, is the only carrier serving Bhutan, with a limited service into Paro. Your Drukair flights from Kathmandu will be organised by Kudu in conjunction with the Ministry of Protocol in Bhutan. The return airfare starts from £ 280.

You will need to book your flights to and from Kathmandu. Please plan to arrive in Kathmandu on 5 November and depart on 19 November. We can advise you on flight and accommodation options. Kathmandu is served by Etihad, Qatar, Singapore and Turkish Airlines and Cathay Pacific.

If you require help with flight reservations, please contact Travellers World, a travel agency in Salisbury (holder of ATOL licence 3764), on 01722 411600 - ask for Jenny or Louise and mention Kudu Travel.

Visa and Health Requirements

BHUTAN

All visitors require a valid passport and a visa for entry to Bhutan - visa support service is organised by Kudu Travel and the cost is included in the trip price. A colour scan copy of your passport is required by Bhutanese authorities.

NEPAL

Most visitors require a valid passport and a visa for entry to Nepal - visas can be obtained on entry at Kathmandu airport. Requirements include 2 passport size photographs, completed visa form and a visa fee (starting from $25).

At present there are no specific and compulsory health requirements for entry to Nepal or Bhutan if you are arriving from North America, Europe or Australia. However, we encourage you to consult your doctor in good time (at least 6 weeks before departure) about updating your immunisation against Hepatitis A, polio, tetanus and typhoid or anything else they consider advisable.
